WTU PRESIDENT TO PARTICIPATE IN PUBLIC DISCUSSION ON DC PUBLIC SCHOOLS

WASHINGTON— Washington Teachers' Union President George Parker and DC Public Schools (DCPS) Deputy Chancellor Kaya Henderson will be featured panelists Thursday at a forum sponsored by the Washington, DC chapter of the NAACP. The goal of the event is to give attendees the opportunity to ask questions and hear key perspectives on the state and future of education in our public schools.

The forum will focus on how parents, individual citizens and groups can work to make our schools better for the students of our city. The forum is free and open to the public.

WHO: WTU President George Parker; DCPS Deputy Chancellor Kaya Henderson

WHAT: The Future of the District of Columbia Public Schools

WHEN: Thursday, November 12th, at 7 p.m.

WHERE: Israel Baptist Church, 1251 Saratoga St., N.E., Washington, DC.
